Caleb Eckman

Short Pitch

A website which displays the digital artwork and professional skills of Caleb Eckman.

Long Pitch

This website will be both a digital repository for artwork and a first point of contact for potential employers. It will display the skills of Caleb Eckman in a fun and professional way. It will be designed in a way that provides maximum flexibility in design and minimum required maintenance. The website will showcase digital art, other web projects, and will also offer necessary materials (contact information and resume) needed in a competitive job market.
